Concerning travel expenses to the 2012 General Assembly

1 Whereas UC2019’s operational principle of “Learning” would be served by facilitating the opportunity for a student “to create an environment where freedom of inquiry and discourse may occur in a climate of inclusiveness and civility” and “will integrate theory and practice, produce a sense of contextual complexity and community engagement, and create learning that is exceptionally self-directed, integrative and transformational”, and

2 Whereas UC2019’s operational principle of “Learning” would be served by “creating a vibrant campus community, while also participating fully with the people of our Uptown neighborhood and beyond” by sending a student representative to the 2012 Jewish Federation General Assembly, and by furthering “the university’s understanding of community by open communication, willing partnership and a climate of inclusion,” and

3 Whereas platform of the Lane|Maesa campaign, “Students for Students”, would be served by sending a student to represent the University of Cincinnati at the assembly, but also by having said student sit on the Student Advisory Committee on the University Budget (SACUB), with the enhanced knowledge of the constituency the student represents, and

4 Whereas the Jewish Federations of North America’s General Assembly (GA) is the premier annual North American Jewish communal event, attracting Federation volunteer leaders and professionals, the leadership of our partner organizations and a range of national Jewish organizations, and

5 Whereas the GA inspires and engages current and emerging Jewish leaders, tackles the most critical issues of the day, and showcases the best of the Federation movement, and

6 Whereas this year, the event will be held in Baltimore, Maryland, from November 11th through the 13th, and

7 Whereas her recent appointment to SACUB as the Religious Representative, the Religious Representative has actively started to delve into the position by starting to understand as much as possible about the different, and

8 Whereas the projected cost of air travel will be $246.20 (as of October 22, 2012,), with a ten percent overrun, totaling $270.82, and

9 Whereas the Religious Representative would greatly enjoy the opportunity to return to Senate after attending the GA, pending approval for the funding, to present the information attained at the conference;

10 Therefore be it appropriated that $270.82 be taken from the Conferences line item to cover travel expenses for the 2012 General Assembly.
